

Profile

KIM BARNETT

Kim Barnett is equal parts team leader, manager, confidante, and strategist. Sure, she's meticulous about the official part of her job and ensures company compliance with federal and state regulations. Her big goal? Build employee engagement and cultivate an enriching company culture throughout Melvin Mark. Her enthusiasm and fresh ideas are already making a difference. She's increased company volunteerism and employee participation in community events, and improved internal communication and connections between executives and staff. Barnett loves her job and wants to ensure that her co-workers have the same passion from working at a successful company with such a strong local connection.

"My job is the perfect marriage of everything I'm interested in and allows me to be a champion for both the company and the employees. Every day, I get to come to work and enjoy being part of such a great company that has been in the city for so many years."

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Barnett joined Melvin Mark Companies in 2005 as development coordinator for Melvin Mark Development Company. Over time, she combined her development department duties with more human resources responsibilities. With more than 20 years of experience in office administration and marketing, Barnett held previous positions with Anderson Door & Window Mechanics, Inc., and Puget Plastics Corporation.

EDUCATION & AWARDS

University of Oregon, professional development certificates

Portland State University, Human Resources certificate

Seattle Pacific University